Our Online and Social Media Policy outlines how we will manage our social media presence.

Data Protection

The UKWDGA is privacy conscious and is strongly committed to your right to privacy and this policy is in line with the guidance of the Data Protection Act 2018, which is the UK's implementation of the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR).

The General Data Protection Regulation 2018

The General Data Protection Regulation 2018 sets out the rules for processing and holding personal information whether that be paper records or data held on computers.

UKWDGA and Storage of Data

The Data Protection Act states when records of personal information are held, those holding them must be open about how the information is used.

The Act states that data must be:

- Fairly and lawfully processed;
- Processed for limited purposes;
- Adequate, relevant and not excessive;
- Accurate;
- Not kept for longer than is necessary;
- Processed in line with your rights;
- Secure.

If you believe that the UKWDGA is not processing and managing your personal data in accordance with these principles please contact the UKWDGA immediately via email at info@ukwdga.org

All personally identifiable information provided to the UKWDGA will be processed in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection Act 2018.

Third parties

The UKWDGA will tell you, when it collects your data, who it may share your information with. However, the UKWDGA's policy is to disclose information to third parties only if explicitly required to do so by United Kingdom Law or where your consent has been obtained.

The UKWDGA does not collect any information to sell to external parties for marketing or mailing purposes on behalf of third parties.

What are Your rights

Under the Data Protection Act 2018, you have rights on how we use your personal data: Your Right to Access

You have the right to request a copy of the personal data that we hold about you by contacting UKWDGA via the email given below. We will ask you to provide information that will enable us to verify who you are. We will respond within 1 month of your request. It should be noted that there are exceptions to this right. We may be unable to make all information available to you if, for example, making the information available to you would reveal personal data about another person, if we are legally prevented from disclosing such information, or if there is no basis for your request, or if it is excessive.

Your Right to rectification

We aim to keep your personal data accurate and complete. The data is only as good as that provided to us by you. If your personal data is not accurate or changes please contact us via the email details below, so that we can keep your personal data up-to-date.

Your Right to have your details deleted

You have the right to request the deletion of your personal data if it is no longer needed for the purposes for which they were collected, where you withdraw your consent for it to be retained or your personal data has been unlawfully gathered and retained. To make a request for your personal data to be removed, please contact us using the email contact details provided below.

Your UKWDGA Membership details will be removed automatically 1 month after the start of the Membership Year commencement date, if a renewal application has not been received for processing.
